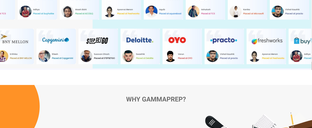
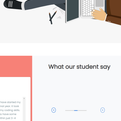
Students Placed Stories



WHY GAMMAPREP?

GAMMAPREP.COM provides coding bootcamp course to get the dream placement in software field. Our mentor is highly qualified and has good experience in the domain. We majorly focus on Tier 2 and Tier 3 college students since they don't get much opportunity to learn coding. Our courses are very nominal if you see other platforms available in the market.



What our student say

Vamsi
Microsoft

Vamsi Krishna Reddy Gopireddy is a passionate and ambitious Full-stack Developer. Proficient in MERN stack, he has a strong foundation in Data Structures and Algorithms, with a focus on building scalable and efficient solutions. Vamsi's recent stints include contributions at Microsoft and Accelq, where he has honed his skills on various live projects. His expertise encompasses the entire software development lifecycle, from conceptualization to deployment, showcasing his versatile skill set and commitment to staying abreast of the latest technologies and industry trends.

Name
Sai Vamsi

Sai Vamsi is a 3rd year student pursuing his training from Accelq in my final year. It was a great experience working with Accelq. Gamma Prep is one of a kind platform that helps students like me who are from tier 2 colleges. Gamma Prep gave us a huge difference in our preparation for the placement drives and helped us to crack our coding problems.

Nagini
Samsung

Nagini Sai Kiran Reddy is a 3rd year student. I was selected for a coding round assessment in my final year in Samsung. Gamma Prep helped me a lot in my preparation for the assessment. Gamma Prep provides a lot of coding problems and Mock Interviews. Gamma Prep gave me a huge difference in my preparation for the assessment and I got the opportunity to crack the assessment and get placed.
